A Word About Working With Our Office

Students can apply for all of the following awards except the Udall independently. That said, our office is here to advise you on your application. If you would like feedback on your work, please contact us AT LEAST TWO WEEKS before the award deadline.

The Udall Scholarship

CAMPUS DEADLINE EXTENDED TO JANUARY 17!

The Udall recognizes students who have demonstrated commitment to the environment in any field (including policy, health, business, and other fields). Applicants must be full-time sophomores or juniors at the time of application. US citizens, nationals, and permanent residents are eligible for this award. The Udall also recognizes Native Americans or Alaska Natives who have demonstrated a commitment to tribal public policy or Native health care. Recommendation letters are due February 7.

Charles B Rangel International Affairs Graduate Fellowship

DEADLINE: JANUARY 17

The Rangel Program seeks to attract and prepare young people for careers as diplomats in the Foreign Service by providing support for graduate school, professional development, and entry into the U.S. Foreign Service. Applicants must be seniors or graduates seeking entry to a fall 2014 graduate program and have a 3.2 or higher GPA. The Program encourages applications from members of groups historically underrepresented in the FS and those with financial need. US citizenship is required.

The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship

DEADLINE: MARCH 4

The Gilman awards Pell Grant recipients up to $5,000 to help them study abroad. Students must select an eligible study abroad program and contact the study abroad office for assistance during the submission of their application. Students are encouraged to contact the national scholarships office by the beginning of February to receive guidance on the content of their application.
