

UPCOMING INFO SESSIONS

NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program Info Session

Featuring Dr. SUSAN FINGER
Program Manager, NSF

Three Possible Sessions!

Friday, September 20	12 Noon	Cathedral of Learning 324 (at Pitt)
Friday, September 20	3:30 PM	McConomy Auditorium (at CMU)
Monday, September 23	4:30 PM	1305 Newell Simon Hall (at CMU)

NOTE: The 2013 application has changed significantly from last year; Dr. Finger will address the changes, as well as the rest of the application. The NSF GRFP offers 3-year graduate fellowships to students in science (including the social sciences), math and engineering. Seniors or beginning graduate students (first two years) are eligible to apply. U.S. citizenship or permanent residency is required. Faculty are also encouraged to attend.

International Opportunities for Engineers!

Featuring SABEEN ALTAF
Senior Program Officer, Science and Technology Programs
Institute for International Education

Thursday, September 19 at 1 PM in 102 BENEDUM

Sabeen Altaf will be on Pitt's campus for one day only to present on IIE's major initiatives for study and research abroad: the Whitaker, the Gilman, the Boren, the Fulbright, and the Global E3 Program. Most of these programs are open to students from all disciplines, but this session is geared towards engineering students.

No RSVP is needed to attend.

DAAD Study / Research Scholarship

CAMPUS DEADLINE: October 18. Contact Judy Zang ASAP to apply.

DAAD INFO SESSIONS will be held on Sept. 24 and 25 at 4:30 PM in CL 1229.

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) provides up to two years of funding for study and research in Germany for graduating seniors, graduate students, and recent graduates. US and Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or international students who have been full-time for more than a year are eligible to apply. NOTE: students can also apply directly to DAAD-click here for direct apply deadlines.

Upcoming Scholarship Deadlines

The Benjamin A Gilman International Scholarship

DEADLINE: October 1 (for Spring 2014). E-mail Judy Zang ASAP if you intend to apply.

The Gilman awards Pell Grant recipients up to $5,000 to help them study abroad. Students must select an eligible study abroad program and work closely with the study abroad office during the submission of their application.

The Boren / Goldwater / Truman

DEADLINE: DECEMBER 2

The campus deadline for the Boren, Goldwater, and Truman Scholarships is December 2. NOTE: Anyone wishing to apply for any of these awards must submit their application by the December 2nd deadline. Students can schedule appointments for mid-October NOW to discuss these awards; in the meantime, students should: 1. thoroughly read these awards' websites; 2. notify Judy Zang of their intent to apply; and 3. begin working on the applications independently.

Knowles Science Teaching Fellowship

DEADLINE: OCT 15

This fellowship provides professional and financial support to individuals looking to begin a career teaching STEM-related subjects in US high schools. KSTF fellows attend annual meetings, work with program officers on teacher development, and gain access to development grants. The program is open to non US-citizens.

KSTF is hosting a series of webinars on the fellowship; click here to RSVP.
